

It is an outrage that Sinclair Broadcast Group is trying to use the public airwaves to sway an election and calling their broadcast 'news' to avoid election laws that require balance and transparency. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
Carolyn Mole